

00-0816 A.E. v. Woodland Park Care Center Issued: 1/31/02

---

A. E. asks the Utah Labor Commission to review the Administrative Law Judge's decision regarding Mr. E.' claim for benefits under the Utah Workers' Compensation Act ("the Act"; Title 34A, Chapter 2, Utah Code Ann.).

The Labor Commission exercises jurisdiction over this motion for review pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §63-46b-12, Utah Code Ann. §34A-2-801(3) and Utah Admin. Code R602-2-1.M.

ISSUE PRESENTED

Mr. E.' motion for review is unclear as to the specific issues he wishes reviewed by the Commission. The Commission will, therefore, review the ALJ's decision in this matter for general conformity with the provisions of the Utah Workers' Compensation Act.

FINDINGS OF FACT

The Commission affirms and adopts the findings of fact set forth in the ALJ's decision.

DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSION OF LAW

Subject to limitations not material to Mr. E.' claim, the Utah Workers' Compensation Act provides medical care and disability compensation to workers injured in work-related accidents. In this case, there is no dispute that Mr. E. was injured in a work-related accident at Woodland Park Care Center on April 19, 2000. As a result of his injuries, Mr. E. is entitled to the medical care and disability benefits detailed in the ALJ's decision. The Commission finds no evidence that Mr. E. is entitled to any additional benefits beyond those included in the ALJ's decision.

ORDER

The Commission affirms the ALJ's decision and denies Mr. Evan's motion for review. It is so ordered.

Dated this 31st day of January, 2002.

R. Lee Ellertson, Commissioner
